Notes

Reflection & Application

outline.

- PETER EXPLAINS HIS ACTIONS AT CORNELIUS' HOUSE (11:1-18):

- + After visiting Cornelius' house (chapter 10), Peter went to Jerusalem.
- + People from the "circumcision party" criticized him for visiting a gentile's house.
- + Peter recounted the events that led him to meet with Cornelius.
- + He told the Jews about his vision of the animals being lowered from heaven in a great sheet.
- + He told them how the Holy Spirit guided him to Caesarea and gave miraculous gifts to Cornelius' household.
- + He concluded by saying, "If then God gave the same gift to them as he gave to us when we believed in the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I that I could stand in God's way."
- + When the Jews in Jerusalem heard Peter's account, they glorified God saying, "Then to the Gentiles also God has granted repentance that leads to life."

- THE BIRTH AND GROWTH OF THE CHURCH IN ANTIOCH (11:19-26):

- + Due to persecution in Jerusalem, the believers were scattered abroad.
- + Some believers from Cyprus and Cyrene preached to the Hellenists (gentiles) in Antioch and many "turned to the Lord."
- + Barnabas moved Antioch and began working with the church.
- + A while later, he travelled to Tarsus to find Saul and bring him to assist with the work in Antioch.
- + They worked in Antioch for a year and taught many people.
- + It was in Antioch that the disciples of Jesus were first called "Christians."

- THE FAMINE (11:27-30):

- + A prophet named Agabus, by the power of the Holy Spirit, foretold a famine that would affect the world during the reign of Emperor Claudius.
- + The disciples collected money to help the saints in Judea.
- + Paul and Barnabas were entrusted to take the collected money to the elders in Judea.

application.

- The Jews were caught off guard when God invited the gentiles to be a part of His Kingdom.
- God doesn't always work in the ways we expect, so we need to be ready to accept His plan when it's different from our expectations.
- Be the kind of person who actively recruits good men/women for God's work.
- There are many talented believers who are just waiting to be told they are useful.
- Barnabas went and found the man he wanted to work alongside him.
- Rather than waiting for people on the sideline to ask for opportunities, let's be actively scouting for talented people.
- Part of being a mentor and a leader is recognizing unutilized talent.
- Many are willing to work, but just need someone to tell them they are useful.
